DROUGHT THREATENS TO CAUSE POWER FAMINE

Charlotte, Sept. 8.—Officials of the Southern Power Company, which generates electric power for most of the larger industrial plants and forty of fifty towns and cities in the Carolinas declare that the protracted drought prevailing during the past weeks is beginning to affect seriously the light and power situation in the two states.

The rivers in this section are running so low that it has become necessary to run the machinery in many of the power plants on partial time, these officials declare.

The two outlets from the dam at Bridgewater have been opened and are pouring torrents into the Catawba river below the dam in an effort to counteract the effect produced by the gradually subsiding streams. This emergency measure has greatly decreased the supply of water stored in the impounding plant at Bridgewater.

Some customers of the Southern Power Company whose plants are located mainly along the Catawba river, have been denied a normal supply of power in order to economize in the use of powder until the situation has improved.

2,000 BALES COTTON BURNED IN GEORGIA

Blakely, Ga., Sept. 8.—Fire early yesterday morning destroyed the brick warehouse of the Peoples Warehouse Company and two thousand bales of cotton. The loss was estimated at $175,000 about half covered by insurance.

Among the heaviest losers were T. S. Sawyer, C. M. Deal, R. C. Singletary, J. O. Bridges, Herbert Fort, Sam Stein and the Blakely cotton company. There were a large number of small cotton holders who had insurance.

The cotton burned included 1,600 bales of old cotton and 400 bales of the new crop.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED

Attackers of White Women Put To Death at Aiken.

Aiken, Sept. 8.—Mansfield Butler and Charlie Thompson, negroes were lynched tonight about 10 o'clock in a cornfield, two miles from Mntmorenci, Aiken County, having attacked, it is alleged, Mrs. Henry Hendrix, the wife of a prominent white farmer of that section. The house was thoroughly ransacked and robbery is declared to have been the cause of the attack, Mrs. Hendrix's head being split open with a hoe and her back terribly hacked with an axe. She is in a precarious condition.

The men were found tied to a stake about two hundred yards from the Hendrix house and their bodies riddled with bullets.

This is the first lynching to take place in Aiken County in about twenty-five years.

The robbery was made during the absence of Mr. Hendrix and was at about 5 o'clock this afternoon. The news spread rapidly and by 7 o'clock there were about 300 automobiles at the home of Mr. Hendrix. Sheriff Howard telegraphed to Governor Cooper for assistance and also wired for bloodhounds, but before these could be secured the alleged assailants had been captured, tied to a stake and their bodies riddled.

They confessed to the crime, it is reported. Coroner Tarver impaneled a jury and was investigating the crime tonight.

Both negroes worked on the Hendrix plantation and were recently from Georgia. Mrs. Hendrix belongs to one of the most prominent families in Aiken County.

NEGRO SLAYER, FREE FIFTEEN YEARS, CAUGHT

Florence, Ala., Sept. 8.—Chester Carroll, negro, was under arrest today after fifteen years of freedom, during which time he was being sought for the killing of Brooks Tilden, negro.

Tilden was killed at a festival at the Springhill church, near here, in the fall of 1906. Carroll is alleged to have shot at another negro. The bullet, missing its intended victim, struck Tilden. Carroll then escaped before the startled eyes of more than a hundred witnesses.

Carroll was recognized by Constable J. C. Jordan. He offered no resistance when put under arrest.

The accused man had been living near here a year before he was recognized.
